

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Lake Forest Graduate School of Management Elects
Antoinette L. Gawin and Warren D. Lindley to its Board of Directors

Lake Forest Graduate School of Management is pleased to announce the election of Antoinette L. Gawin, VP of Strategy for Baxter Healthcare Corporation, and Warren D. Lindley, Divisional VP – Organizational Design and Effectiveness for Walgreen Co., to the School's Board of Directors. The School welcomes these two talented and highly respected executives as valued additions to LFGSM's business-leader Board of Directors.

LAKE FOREST, ILL. (August 1, 2011) — Lake Forest Graduate School of Management (LFGSM) is pleased to announce the election of Antoinette L. Gawin and Warren D. Lindley to its Board of Directors. Ms. Gawin is VP of Strategy for Baxter Healthcare Corporation and will serve on the Board's Marketing, Admissions, Alumni Relations and Corporate Sales Committee. Mr. Lindley is Divisional VP – Organizational Design and Effectiveness for Walgreen Co. and will serve on the Board's HR & Compensation Committee. As members of the LFGSM Board of Directors, Gawin and Lindley join an esteemed group of high-ranking executives from major Chicago-area businesses and organizations.

As the current Vice President of Strategy for Baxter Healthcare, Antoinette Gawin is charged with translating the company's strategic imperatives into operating parameters. She joined Baxter as VP of Business Operations for Medication Delivery, supporting all commercial transactions, including contract administration, pricing, and wholesaler and distributor management. Previously, Gawin pursued a 20+ year career with GE, where she held commercial, general management and operational leadership roles of progressively higher levels of responsibility. Prior to joining Baxter, she was Chief Marketing Officer for GE Healthcare Financial Services, overseeing strategic planning, new market launches, PR and communications.

Gawin is a graduate of the University of Michigan, with degrees in Economics and English, and is pursuing an MS in Health Law and Policy at DePaul University. Active in the community, she has been a member of the LFGSM Business Advisory Council; sponsors the Fleis Family Educational Fund, a non-profit that provides college scholarships and mentoring to rural high school graduates; and is a board member of American Friends of the Watershed Trust Organization, an India-based non-profit dedicated to alleviating rural poverty through village-based water management programs.

"As a member of the LFGSM Business Advisory Council, I have had the opportunity to become engaged in the life of the School and to participate with other area business professionals to help address key business education issues. I am looking forward to contribute further to the School's success as a member of the Board," Gawin said.

Warren D. Lindley joined Walgreens as Divisional Vice President of Organizational Design and Effectiveness in August 2010. Prior to joining Walgreens, Lindley was the Vice President of Talent Optimization at Kellogg Company in Battle Creek, MI. Before being appointed Vice President with the Kellogg Company, Lindley served in a number of leadership roles, including Director of HR for Global Marketing, Director of Global Learning & Development, and Director of Organization Effectiveness. Previously, he was Manager of People Development for YUM Brands / Pizza Hut, and was Manager of OD & Training for Kmart Corporation.

“As a professional who has devoted my career to the area of learning and development and talent optimization, I am pleased to have the opportunity to support higher education by my service on the LFGSM Board,” Lindley said. “I’m eager to help to enhance the quality of education for the working professional students and the wider business community that the School serves.”

Lindley holds a Bachelor's Degree in Psychology from Illinois State University, and a Master's Degree in Industrial and Organization Psychology from Missouri State University-Springfield. He has served on the Board of Directors of Family and Children Services in Kalamazoo, Michigan.

“It is a pleasure to welcome both Antoinette and Warren to our Board of Directors,” said John Popoli, LFGSM President & CEO. “The addition of their expertise in areas such as business strategy, operations, organizational effectiveness and talent development further strengthen our Board’s ability to diligently serve the community as a not-for-profit educational institution dedicated to serving the educational needs of working business professionals.”

LFGSM is an independent, accredited, not-for-profit graduate business school offering the Chicago area’s premier MBA program for experienced professionals, with campuses in Schaumburg and Lake Forest, and on site at some of the area’s leading companies. Learn more about LFGSM’s degree programs and corporate learning solutions at www.LFGSM.edu.