Elected to Lake Forest Graduate School of Management Board of Directors

Sandy Lincoln, Senior V.P. and Investment Strategist of M&I Investment Management Corp., has been elected a member of the Board at LFGSM, a premier graduate business school offering one of Chicagoland's largest non-profit MBA programs.

LAKE FOREST, ILL. (November 30, 2009) — Lake Forest Graduate School of Management (LFGSM) is pleased to announce the election of Sandy Lincoln to a three-year term on its Board of Directors. He will also serve on the Board's Lake Forest Corporate Education Committee. As an LFGSM Board member, Lincoln joins an esteemed group of high-ranking executives from major Chicago-area businesses and organizations.

“With more than 30 years of investment management and consulting experience, Sandy has a proven track record as a skilled business leader,” said LFGSM Board Chair Joan Bailar. “We welcome him to the Board and look forward to leveraging his investment expertise and insights on management and leadership for the benefit of the School and its constituents.”

Lincoln is currently Senior V.P. and Investment Strategist of M&I Investment Management Corporation, a leading asset management investment firm. He has held numerous executive leadership positions in the investment industry, including serving as a vice president at A.G. Becker, president of Mercer Global Asset Consulting, chairman and CEO at Kemper Institutional Asset Management Company, and CIO of Kemper Corporation. Lincoln also served as COO at Lincoln Capital Management, CIO of Lake Forest Capital Management, and chief market strategist at Wayne Hummer Asset Management Company.

“I look forward to serving on the Board and welcome the opportunity to contribute to the School's mission of enabling experienced business professionals become even more effective business leaders,” Lincoln said.

Lincoln holds a B.A. from Valparaiso University and an MBA, Finance, from Loyola University. He's made regular appearances on CNBC, CNN, WGN and Bloomberg, and has been quoted in the Wall Street Journal, Investor's Business Daily and Chicago Tribune. Lincoln also devotes his time and talents to community service, mentoring a student at St. Joan Antida, an inner-city girls' high school, and Family Rescue, which provides safe housing and care for abused women and their children.
